Annual Enrollment 1,400 Students

Rev. W. T. Beadles, formerly District Superintendent of the Quincy District of the Methodist Church, writes:

"During my six years' residence in Quincy, ending last fall, I was always impressed with the greatness of the work of the Gem City Business College among the thousands of students that were in attendance there. Having through your courtesy abundant opportunity to observe the workings of the school in all its departments, I became convinced that you were doing a great work. Since leaving Quincy, I have met numbers of your former students who are now occupying responsible positions in various business capacities, and the manner in which they sing the praises of the Gem City has explained somewhat the wonderful success that is crowning your efforts. With best wishes for your continued success. I am,

"Yours truly,

"W. T. BEADLES."

THREE REASONS WHY

CORTRIGHT METAL SHINGLES

WILL INTEREST YOU

I. DURABILITY

A Cortright roof is a permanent roof in every sense of the word. Cortright roofs laid 26 years ago are are good as new today, and the only attention they have needed is an occasional coat of paint.

II. Superiority Over Wood and Slate

Cortright Metal Shingles cannot split, curl or decay like wood shingles; nor crack and fall off like slate.

On the contrary, they outlast either wood or slate, and never leak or need repairs.

III. THE COST

The first cost of a Cortright roof is always less than slate, and frequeutly no greater than for wood shingles, but its saving year in and year out in repairs makes Cortright Metal Shingles in final cost without question the most economical roof obtainable.

The Methodist Book Concern and Dividends

Since dividends were resumed in 1884 the Church has been aroused as never in the past, to the larger patronage of a more generously supplied catalogue of the best literature; there has also been the underlying feeling that to patronize the Book Concern meant, in a certain sense, to help the deserving veterans of the Church. Our dividends have resulted, for a number of years, in increasing cash payments each year to the Conferences.

No matter what race the Methodist preacher belongs to, or under what sky or in what continent he does his work, wherever there is a Methodist preacher in full membership in a Conference he is taken into the accounting when the division is made, and whether he be in one hemisphere or another, North or South, East or West, each man is entitled to his share in the division.

This year $250,000 is the amount which the Book Concern considers it wise and safe to set aside for the Conferences, and it means $13.53 per man to all the members of all the Conferences in all the Methodist world.

The Book Concern has this relation to the Church then: that it hopes and confidently expects to be able to give increasing amounts annually as the years go by.

THE NEW MOVEMENT IN DECORATING Churches is the simplicity of idea and charm in color. Yet the simpler the treatment, the more difficult it is to produce the effect of richness, quality and excellence.

Beautiful color effects are not produced by chance; it takes much experience and careful study—IT IS AN ART. Let us show you designs and color effects.

PASTORIAL ADDRESS.

In this day of wide missionary demands and commercial activity the church has thrown upon it a responsibility at home and abroad second to to no other age of the world. And as the athlete, nearing the day of great effort, feels the importance of his condition, so the church in this great hour should seek to obtain its greatest strength. And the strength is not to be measured by the number of names upon our church records alone. The faith that leads to action and far reaching results is infinitely greater than all the statistics published. In our vision of the heathen world so ready to be won for Christ, it is possible we have tended to substitute dollars for personal piety, and in the very act of taking possession of the world, have allowed a weakened condition of spiritual strength at the home base.

The words of the Episcopal Address to the General Conference against the "mad contagion of greed, worldliness, pride and lust that has invaded the churches, turning thousands away from their vows without compunction," cannot be two strongly dwelt upon. How can we fortify against the invasion? If we seek for the true causes of this condition of society to-day, surrounding and influencing our membership and modifying the Godliness that used to characterize Methodism, do we not find one of the dominating forces to be the desire to be amused? And to meet this strong demand, invention and money is being called upon more than ever before in the history of the nation. All varieties of time-killers and moral anesthetics are in reach of young and old. The clean ideals of the past that met our boys and girls in the home and out it are sadly lacking. Religion is not now a thing that will bear us on by the force of emotion.

God honors those who honor Him. The world honors us accordingly as we exhibit fearlessness in our efforts to keep clean. When the church more rigidly enforced discipline, it grew rapidly, in the face of conditions that were outwardly adverse. The church did not hold its membership cheap. With the changing conditions and the supposed requirements of a different age, we find ourselves with a retarded growth. It is well to ask ourselves if this is not the result of two great a conformity to the changed age. Possibly in our conformity we have lost the respect the former age held for us. The dance is no less lacivious to-day, and cards no less the heralds of gambling than yesterday, but the skating rink and the picture show and that greatest of all joys, the automobile that never rests on Sunday, so attractive to the entrance of the downward path that we must not be taken unawares. We as Methodists must still stand against such amusements as cannot be used in the name of Lord Jesus. We must remember the Lords Day, even though we own an automobile. The attempted change of a paragraph does not mean a change of attitude towards these misleadidg allurments.

The very newness of conditions all around us emphasizes the need of the conscious presence of a personal Savior. No fog-hidden experience will make us successful in leading others to the glory crowned heights of Christian experience Whan the arts of the world confuse, we should be clear. Only when in the possession of implicit faith in God can we speak as having authority to the world that holds and loves so many theories that contain no living divine presence.

It is a matter of congratulation that the ministery of to-day has the advantage of so much and so thorough a training in theology. But this neccessitates the greater consciousness of the divine leadership on the part of both pulpit and people Theology will never take the place of the prayer meeting. Men may hold correct theories and yet live in sin. The revival may change its form but we fail when we are looking for success without it. And the genuine revival means a seconding of the ministery by the membership in prayers and all the means given into your hands to aid and carry on the work. There are times when the membership must push; times when they must speak the words of encouragement to the pastor. And such times are not seldom.

Methods may change and ideals advance, but the purpose of the church to save men from their sins through the atonement of Christ must never be obscured. Culture and education come ever in the wake of His steps, but they must not be allowed to overshadow Him or substitute for His loving kindness to men. We care not how they are saved, but the fact should be beyond all doubt. Psychology has made great discoveries, but it can neither exceed nor dispense with the discovery of a Savior by a weary soul.

We must ever be thankful for the great revivals of the earlier days. Like the miricles of the early church they hold before us our possibilities and give us the ideals of success. The fathers were so enraged in getting additions that they seem to have needed small effort to hold them. We find the process reversed somewhat. With small increase it takes constant pastorial care to keep the flock together.

Facing our difficulties and responsibilities relentlessly brings us to our knees in humble recognition of our inability to succeed in our own strength. The divine leadership cannot be substituted by the divices of men. In the face of a sinning world in need of a personal Savior we must not pose a popular church as the best representive of what God can do for sinful man.

Report of Visitor to Garrett Biblical Institute

Garrett Biblical Institute is in a prosperous growing condition The work done in class-room was found to be thorough. The doctrines of Methodism are clearly and emphatically taught.

The work of President C M Stuart and the strong faculty of the Institute is efficient and commendable in every respect.

The Division of the work of the Institute into two schools, The Graduate School of Theology and the Diploma School, has made it possible to give very best training to college graduates in the one School and to under graduates in the other. This is a great advantage to classes of students.

We seriously recommend one of these courses of study to all candidates for the ministry of our church.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY REPORT.

WHEREAS: The Freedmen's Aid Society has twenty-two schools, with 500 teachers and 6,620 students. The schools are planted in strategic positions in the several black belts of the South and are, therefore, of easy access to the people, for whose uplift they are maintained.

The Christian Character of these schools is an important element in the speedy and righteous solution of the problem. The teachings of the Master are the central thought in all of them, Love, not hatred, rules, and our students are taught that individual worth and character are of greater importance than the mere claiming of rights or privileges. For these reasons our schools are doing much for peace and harmony in the South, and for mutual help and co-operation between the races.

Annual Revivals of religion are held in all these institutions and are considered of more importance than their literary or industrial work. There were last year 326 conversions in these schools.

The General Committee at its last session gave careful attention to the matter of apportionments to the Conferences, and asked for $300,000.00 from the General Church and from your Conference $3,444.00

"We endorse the recommendation of the Board of Managers of the General Committee and the Board of Bishops that the year 1913 be observed as the Semi-Centenial Jubilee of the glorious Act of Emancipation; that the church year be kept free for religious and patriotic celebration of this momentous occurence, and that special offerings be made in connection with this anniversary celebration, for the support, endowment and more perfect equipment of the Freedmen's Aid schools."

Respectfully,
W T Morris, Chairman Committee.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We note with deep interest the financial, educational and spiritual success attending the year's work of the Woman's Home Missionary within the bounds of our Conference, and as pastor's we should do all within our power to help those women in their consecrated efforts to extend the Kingdom of our Lord to the ends of the earth. We earnestly recommend the organization of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society in every Pastorial charge in the Conference, and to that end we pledge our hearty co-operation.

John F Harmon,
Frank W Loy,
Joe G Harmon,
J W Flint,
George Fidler.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Recognizing the importance of the Woman's Home Missionary Society in relation to the Deaconess movement, the Hospital and Orphantage, and the questions of vital interests in the church and nation. We therefore recommend that Auxillaries of the W H M S be organized, where ever practicable, on all the charges, that we emphasize especially the co-operation of pastor's with this Society in the study of the Text Books adopted, thereby emphasizing the fact that Christianizing America means the Christianizing of the World.

J Y Reid, Chairman.

C H Hall, Secretary.

DEACONESS' WORK

Recognizing the importance of Deaconess' work, and noting the increasing demand for efficient workers in this department of our christian endeavor, we hereby urge our pastor's to call the attention of the young women in their charges who are seeking training for this line of work, to the advantages offered by such schools as the Epworth Institute, of St Louis, and the Chicago Deaconess' Training School, of Chicago; also other training schools designed for such preparation, located at Kansas City and Washington, D C.

It is our opinion that these schools are offering training of the highest order together with true ideals of Christian living and consecrated service.

C A Beckett,
W I Terhune.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Realizing the constantly increasing importance of the work of the Sunday School in our church, and the great possibilities of its work. We therefore recommend,

1st, We give more and better attention to the work, to the end, that the church may not only do more for the souls committed to her care in training them for the church and Jesus Christ, but also for their immediate preparation for the Christian life.

2nd. We continuously prosecute the work of Evangelism in the Sunday School, and thereby conserve the members for the work and service of the church.

2rd. We give more and better attention to the character of both the teacher and things taught in the schools of the church, that by these means the people may be come better instructed in the things of God.

4th. We give more attention to Rally Day in our Sunday School that there-by the enrollment and efficiency of our schools may be increased. And, that we may become more and more able to reach the last individual, that may be within the possible reach of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

5th. We make special effort to raise the full appointment for the Board of Sunday Schools so that it may not be crippled in its great work in the needy fields.

W L Jones, Chairman.

O E Connett, Secretary.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE COMMITTEE.

The Epworth League, with its four great departments, each with its sub-committees, comprises an organization comprehensive and symmetrical, yet simple and adaptable to all communities.

Its mission "to attract, save, and train young people,' is large enough to engage all those who desire a really noble and lofty mission in the kingdom of Christ.

We recommend to all our young people the wholesome attitude of trying to realize the ideal in league work. The possibilities or character perfection, of training for more effective service, are unlimited.

We endorse the state and district organizations and believe they fill an important place in our league work, and we urge our pastors and leaguers to attend the Quiver Lake Institute and all conveations when possble.

The Epworth Herald is indespensable in our word, and we recommend this valuable paper to all our young people, and may the day speedily come when an Epworth Herald shall be found in every home where dwells a young Methodist.

L S Mc Kown, Chairman.
C W Hall, Secretary.

THE AMERICAN VIGILANCE ASSOCIATION

The object of the American Vigilance Association, is the suppression and prevention of commercial vice, the absolute repression of prostitution and the passage and enforcement of law for the protection of girls and women.

This Conference heartily endorses the work being done by Dr. Horace Reed, Field Lecturer, in the special emphasis he lays upon the suppression of the White Slave traffic, the abolishing of the social evil, in towns and cities ; the creating of a public sentiment that will demand better marriage and divorce laws; proper purity teaching in High Schools, Colleges and Universities, and the enactment of a law by the State requiring a physical examination before the granting of a marriage license

We also urge that all parents banish their false modesty and give their children more instruction at home, and furnish them with suitable purity literature. E T carroll.

CLASS MEETING

We, the Committee of Class meeting, desire to offer the following suggestions :

1st. That each charge maintain as large a number of young and competent leaders as possible.

2nd. That consecration, spontanious action and brevity, be the chief factors in conducting a service.

3rd. We heartily recommend community Class Meetings where ever practicable and urge upon leaders the importance the personal touch. M. C Foltz,
V B Sullins.

Sabbath Observance

Whereas the Sabbath is a divine institution recognized by the laws of God and man as of vital importance of its strict observance and recognizing the violations of its sanctity by many, either in pleasure or remunerative pursuits, therefore be it resolved :

1st. That we condemn such violations both by public sermon and private rebuke.

2nd. That we must awaken the people to the danger that threaten us from the incoming Continental Sunday, the quiet and thoughtful Sabbath that belongs to our law and history must be preserved.

And we are glad to greet at this session of our Conference our brother, Dr Edward Thompson, general manager of the Sunday League of America.

We approve the proposition of the Sunday League of America, to recognize the first week following Easter as Lord's Day Week, and make it a time of special thought and prayer for the preservation of the Lord.s Day.

BIBLE SOCIETY

We rejoice in the marvelous work of the American Bible Society in sending broadcast it's millions of copies of the Book of life to the hungry people of every land.

We desire as a Conference to express our emphatic disapproval of the decision of the Supreme Court of Illinois, by which they have taken from our Public Schools the Holy Bible.

CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON FINANCE

Commission recommend that representatives of the Anti-Saloon League, the Creal Springs Orphanage, the Eleanor Smith Deaconess and Old Peoples Home, and the Illinois Vigilance Association, be admitted to our pulpits to present the claims of the organizations and to receive offerings.

The Committee will hold itself ready during the year to consider and report upon any further interest that may desire representation.

J G TUCKER, Secretary Commmitte,
C A BECKETT, Chairman Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PERIODICALS

We rejoice that it is possible for us to offer to our people the Central Christian Advocate, our own excellent religious weekly. The time has come for every pastor and every official board to make an earnest and persistant effort to put the Central into every Methodist home. This should be possible now since the price, being reduced to one dollar a year, leaves our people without excuse for not taking it. We record our conviction that such a general circulation of the Advocate will be more effective in prompting our benevolent causes than their presentation in special publications can be. We recognize in our great family of Advocates, together with the Epworth Herald and the Methodist Review, a system of church periodicals which, if properly circulated, will go far toward working a much needed revolution of thought and life among our people.

ZELAH J FARMER, Chairman,
MANLEY J MUMFORD, Secretary.

HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

WHEREAS, there are so many needy fields in the Home land and the demand for aggressive Evangelism have already become imperative, and

WHRREAS, the continuation of unchristianized people so largely increase these demands, and

WHEREAS, the contributions to the Home Missions and Church Extension Society are entirely inadequate to meet the requirements,

THEREFORE: Be it resolved that we make a more strenous effort to meet the urgent needs of this worthy cause.

W H WHITLOCK,
C R PHILLIPS.

COMMITTEE ON HOSPITALS

WHEREAS, we have heard, with pleasure, the presentation of Wesley Hospital, by the Rev M W Satterfield, D D, corresponding Secretary and Chaplin, and learn with gratitude of the complete equipment and efficient service of this noble institution now administering to world wide Methodism, and

WHEREAS, of the four thousand five hundred and fifty five patients received at Wesley during the past twelve months, more than one thousand were guests of the church, receiving the ministry of Wesley, either in part, or entirely, free.

THEREFORE, be it resolved, that Southern Illinois Conference recognize Wesley as its official Hospital, and, as opportunity affords, we will co-operate in the support of the free-bed work, and we will commend to our young women, contemplating training, the advantages of the nurse training school of Wesley. And we will advise our people of the efficient ministry of help and teaching in Wesley's Medical and Surgical service.

FINANCIAL COMMITTEE.

We, your Financial Committee, would respectfully submit the following report:

SECTION 1. The Policy of this Conference shall be, that the title of the property of the Charitable Institutions of the Conference shall be vested in the Conference through the Board of Conference Trustees; which Trustees shall submit a full report of their proceedings to each Session of the Conference.

SECTION 2. In accordance with our policy, we hereby most respectfully request the Trustees of the Elenor Smith's Memorial Deaconess Methodist Home of Southern Illinois Conference to deed the property thereof to the Conference.

If this request is granted, the Board of Conference Trustees shall create a Board of Directors for the Home and determine their tenure of office.

If constituted, this Board of Directors shall be subject to the Board of Conference Trustees, and shall, regularly during or prior to each Session of the Conference, make a complete report of their transactions to the Board of Conference Trustees.

If this Board of Directiors is constituted the Board of Conference Trustees is hereby instructed to appoint the present Trustees of the Home upon the Board of Directors.

The Commission appointed to consider the Mrs Carrie Holden Hospital proposition at Litchfield examined the property carefully. Found it well located and estimated the value of the property at $10.000. The Commission reached the conclusion that it would require an endowment of $30,000 to put the Hospital on a safe basis. We presented this claim to the District Conferences, but received no encouragement insuring the $30,000. After tendering our thanks to Mrs Holden for her generous offer we respectfully declined the proposition.

Respectfully submitted,
J W MCNEILL, chairman,

L W THRALL, Secretary.

RESOLUTION

WE recommend the opening of each pulpit in the Conference once each year to the Field Worker of the Eleanor Smith Old Folks Home for the purpose of presenting the work and taking a collection. We also urge each pastor who is not able to secure the services of the Field Worker to present the cause and take the collection once each year.

TEMPERANCE REPORT

Your committe on Temperance having considered all papers presented, report :—

"WE are compelled to admit that in spite of all that has been done to destroy the liquor traffic, it still flourishes ; that it still throttles political parties into silence, and still carries its work of destruction, governmentally aided, into every state and municipality in our land.

"WE are agreed that the liquor traffic is a gigantic monopoly, and that it now compels administration from the standpoint that it is right. We are agreed that the traffic is wrong and that it cannot be made right by law ; Therefore be it resolved :—

"That we pledge ourselves to the proposition that government, municipal, state and nation, must be administered from the standpoint that the liquor traffic is wrong. Further :—

"That we will aid in all temperance agitation, by our Temperance Society, Anti Saloon League, (National, State and Local), W C T U, or any other agency that will help arouse the american people to the support of the proposition that we must have administration from the standpoint that the liquor traffic is wrong."

Report No. 2—

In reference to the paper refered to committee by J A Scarritt, concerning the organization of Anti-Saloon Leagues, the committee recommend no action be taken except to reaffirm last years action, which was as follows :

"We commend mose heartily the work of the Anti Saloon League, and the work it has done ; and ask our people to cooperate with it in this great task, and that we also urge it to, as speedily as possible, organize each county, township and precinct throughout the state."

Edmund Barnes, Chairman.

D W Baker, Secretary.

Memoirs

Fredrick Lewis Thomson.

Fredrick Lewis Thomson was a son of William Thomson, M D, whose home was in middle Tennessee, and who was for twenty years a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal church. His mother was of Holland parentage. He was born June 23, 1841, baptized in infancy and taught that he was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was educated in Chapel Hill and Salem Academies and under private tutors before the days of free schools in Tennessee. At the age of twelve years he was converted to God, and very soon afterwards felt a distinct call to the ministery. At Wards Chapel on the Montgomery circuit, Tennessee Conference of the M E Church, South, he was licensed to preach August 15, 1859. September 15th of the same year, he was received on trial in the Tennessee Conference, Bishop Pierce presiding, and appointed Junior preacher on Montgomery circuit. He was next appointed to Grove Church, Nashville. Everything was in confusion on account of the war. He was frequently arrested and taken to head-quarters, but was never seriously hindered in his work.

In the meantime his father had removed to Johnson County, Illinois. On account of his own Union sentiments and the political situation, he decided to follow his parents into Illinois. This he did in 1863. It does not appear that he was ever received into full membership in the Tennessee Conference.

Soon after coming to this state he was appointed supply preacher at Metropolis. In 1866 he was received on trial in the Southern Illinois Conference, and ordained Deacon by Bishop Thomson. Two years later he was ordained Elder by Bishop Janes. After Metropolis his appointments were Mound City, Jonesboro, Shawneetown, Cairo, Jerseyville, Alton, Salem, Greenville, Nashville, Litchfield, Alton (second term) Flora, Carbondale, Marion and Pinckneyville. From 1880 till 1882 he was Chaplain of the Southern Illinois State Penetentiary at Chester.

In all his charges his work was characterized by thorough organization, careful administration and thoughtful attention to details. He was a clear, scholarly and forceful preacher. Keenly sensitive to high and holy ideals and life he was bold and fearless in denouncing whatever he conceived to be wrong. Great numbers of souls were won to the Divine life through his ministery. He excelled as a pastor. Sympathetic, and tender, courteous and kindly, always a gentleman and a Christian, he constantly ministered in the homes and offices of his people, cheering, comforting, instructing and directing them in the things of God. He believed greatly in his charges, loved his work passionately, lived and preached a manly, virile gospel. Possessing a charming personality he was accepted among all classes and made friends for his Lord everywhere. The poorest and least cultivated members of his congregation received the same courtesy and attention that was given to the more highly favored.

He was never a place-seeker. He received his appointment from his Bishop as from God, and never dodged or complained about his appointments. He was active and efficient in the sessions of the Conference. He was particularly useful in committee work and in the administration of important commissions. For twenty years he was President of the Conference Missionary Society. For fifteen years he was a member and Treasurer of the Board of Stewards. For thirty years he was a member of the Board of Examiners. While a pastor in the Alton District he was influential in organizing the Disritct League, and was its President for eight years.

Aside from his work as pastor and a member of the Conference, his interests reached out and embraced many helpful ministeries. He was some time President of the Illinois State Sunday school Association and traveled over thirty-two Counties of Southern Illinois, and organized schools in neglected places. He was a delegate to the International Sunday School Association conventions at Baltimore, Atlanta and St Louis, and afterward the World's Convention at St Louis.

He was fellow worker with Dr. later Bishop Vincent, in organizing that wonderful educational institution at Chautauqua, N Y, and was one of the first instructors and graduates of the Normal course and later of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, a Knight Templer, and held high office in the fraternity.

In an anniversary sermon preached at Marion in celebration of the golden jubilee of his pastorate he said: "While I have sought diligently to preach and minister to all classes of people, I have purposely given special attention to the children and youth." In this work he was ably and efficiently assisted by his wife whose labors in Junior League, Missionary Societies and children's choirs were prominent features of their work in every place.

He had preached 5,750 sermons; made 59,200 pastorial calls; baptized above 21,000 persons; received into church membership more than 3,000, and conducted above 1,500 funerals, and married 1,800 couples.

His domestic life was most beautiful. He was twice married First, to Miss Mary L Bruner, August 7, 1865. Three sons were born to them. Two of these died in early life. One, William, who with his son Charles Owen Thomson, survive the father. The mother and wife died in 1880. On December 9, 1884 he was married to Miss Emilie Coigny, of Greenville, Illinois. She ever found in him her beau-ideal lover and husband. He so planned his life's work as not to be seperated from her a day in all the twenty-seven years of their married life. Besides his wife, two brothers and a sister survive him.

His last public service was on Sunday afternoon, December 10th, at which time he conducted the funeral of a friend. His sermon was on "The Resurrection," and he feelingly spoke of his own abiding hope and faith in his own resurrection and life beyond the grave. He was not able to conduct services the following Sunday, and on Monday morning while it was yet early in the day, having finished his work and the race of life, alone in his own home and in the presence of his wife whom he had loved and cared for so tenderly and so long, he fell asleep and was gathered to his Father's Home, December 18, 1911.

Funeral services were conducted in the church at Pinckneyville, Wednesday afternoon, December 20th, many brethren in the ministry taking part. The following day he was taken to Metropolis, whereafter services in the church in that City, with Masonic rites, he was laid to rest by the side of his loved ones.

"I can not say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away."

James G Tucker.

Rev. Nathaniel Crow, D. D.

Fathaniel, son of John Harvey Crow, and Eleanor Pillow, was born near Shawneetown, Ill., Sept. 9, 1851, and died at Fairfield, Ill., March 12, 1912.

Dr C B Spencer says: "Nathal Crow bore a given name that fitted his character. Nathaniel—in whom was no guile—was the key to his character." From a child he was ambitious to learn. He fought for an education. He won. Early in life he qualified himself for teaching, and for several years followed that profession, during which time he aspired to become a lawyer, but God had for him a different work. Accordingly, on August 6, 1868 he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church where he at once entered upon an active christian life.

In the summer of 1878 he came face to face with his life work and resolved to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ. In this he was encouraged by his pastor, Rev J B Thompson, and in the fall of that year was appointed a supply on the McLeanesboro Circuit.

The following year, 1879, he was admitted into the Southern Illinois Conference on trial, and appointed pastor of New Liberty Circuit. Two years later he was received into full connection and ordained a Deacon, Sept 4, 1881, by Bishop Hurst. Having completed the conference course of study he was elected and ordained an Elder, Sept. 23, 1883, by Bishop Bowman.

Beside the above, he served the following charges in the order named: Elizabethtown, Harrisburg, Vienna, Grayville, Carmi, Salem, Upper Alton, East St. Louis, Summit Ave., Mt. Vernon District, Vandalia, Centralia and Fairfield.

As a pastor, Rev. Crow began work in hard fields, but he cultivated well—his promotion was gradual—he served a number of the best charges in the Southern Illinois Conference, His appointment as Presiding Elder of Mt Vernon District in 1897, was, without doubt, Providential. He wrought well. He built up the work, opened up many new fields of labor, and at the close of a full term was elected a delegate to the General Conference which convened the following May, in Los Angeles, California.

As a minister, Rev Crow was an able preacher, and a thorough christian gentleman. He delivered sermons of great power. He had strong convictions, and was a defender of our common faith. He was industrious and studious. He devoured books and became a rich scholar. He was loyal and devoted to McKendree College. He urged young men to attend school—especially young preachers. The fact that, without any solicitation on his part, McKendree college conferred upon Nathaniel Crow the degree of Doctor of Divinity, was evidence of the value and appreciation of his work for that splendid institution.

Dr Crow was literary. The work of his pen was no inconsiderate part of his ministry. A booklet, published by the American Citizen of Boston, on—"The Bible a Constructive Force in America"—was in great demand and elicited commendation from many sources.

Nathaniel Crow was united in marriage to Miss Martha Asbury, of McLeanesboro, Ill., Aug. 17, 1880. To them were born seven children, all of whom survive, and all are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church—a substantial evidence of early training. An "idlyic home."

Dr Crow's last years were years of much suffering. He went to his last appointment—Fairfield—in broken health, but his reception was quite cordial. In appreciation of his ability, and services the quarterly conference gave him a handsome increase in salary, and when the people could do no more they literly covered his casket with flowers—not for show—but as an expression of love and devotion.

Dr Crow was ambitious. He worked faithfully unto the end. His last week on earth was an unusally busy one. On Sunday, March 10th, he preached with more than his usual vigor and with much freedom. His sermons were full of thought and elicited many compliments. His text at the evening hour was —"Have Faith in God," and "There Remaineth a Rest to the People of God." At the close he announced the hymn—and sang the entire hymn with a clear resonant voice. It was his last hymn on earth. Here he laid down his armor. Hemorages come during the night, and Tuesday—a little past noon —the soul of Nathaniel Crow rested in the Paradise of God.

"Forever here my rest shall be"—

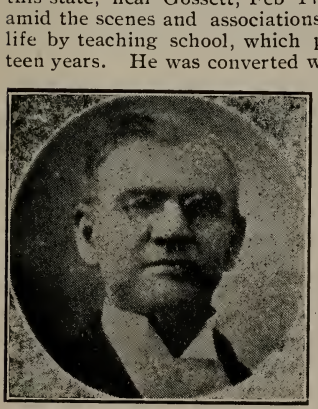
Funeral services were held in the church of his last pastorate, in charge of District Superintendent Poole, assisted by Revs. Whitlock, McCammon. Hall, Rodgers, Dr Harmon, and J A Powell. Many pastors were present. The audience was concourse. All heads were bowed, and tears flowed from many faces.

Interment was at McLeanesboro, in the Odd Fellows cemetery, beside the road he traveled when first he came to that city, thirty four years ago.

Servant of God well done!
Thy glorious warefares past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

Rev W D Margrave

W D Margrave was born on a farm in Hamilton County, this state, near Gossett, Feb 14, 1852. He grew to manhood amid the scenes and associations of his birthplace. He began life by teaching school, which profession he followed for fourteen years. He was converted when 19 years old and early felt the call of God upon him, to which he yielded and was admitted into the Southern Illinois Conference on trial at McLeanesboro in 1894. He was received in full connection in 1896. In this relation he continued active to the end, which came peacefully in the midst of the second year of one of the most prosperous of his pastorate.



He served during his ministry the following charges: Eddyville, three years; Crossville, one year; Enfield, one year; Bellmont, two years; Crossville again, three years; Vienna, four years; Marissa, two years; Mound City, two years.

Receiving his appointment to Herrin charge from Bishop McDowell, at Olney in September, 1910, and again at East St. Louis in September, 1911. As a young man Brother Margrave was strong, active and alert. He forged his way up through adversity, creating by his energy and strength of character a place and opportunity for the exercise of the excellent qualities which he possessed.

As a husband he was always kind and faithful. Home to him was earth's oases. There he rested and refreshed himself—at its alters he renewed his strength, going fourth to press the battle.

As a father he was considerate and careful, safeguarding at every point the highest and best interests of his children, instructing them in things both temperal and spiritual. Calling them around his bed he delivered to each one a final personal charge and gave to them all a father's blessing.

As a minister he was clear and fearless; he denounced sin and set up a standard of righteousness to which he called the people with unfailing fidelity; hundreds were converted as a result.

As a pastor he was faithful, a true shepherd, feeding the flock of God. Evidences of the high esteem in which he was held by his people was shown by the kindness and fidelity with which they nursed him through his illness; also many visiting him from former charges.

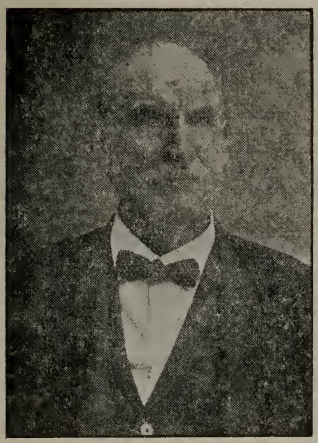
He is survived by a devoted wife, seven children and three sisters, with a host of brethren and friends to follow on until we shall all meet at "our Fathers house above."

The funeral services was held in the first Methodist Episcopal church in Herrin, of which he was pastor, April 10 under the direction of Rev J A Taylor, Superintendent of Mt Vernon District. Interment was made at the beautiful cemetery at Vienna, Illinois.

Rev J H Bennett

On the 14th day of July, 1844, there was born to Robert H. and Agnez Bennet, of Jackson, Tenn., a son, whom they christtened James Howard. In this home he spent the first few years of his life, when his parents removed to Illinois, locating in Hamilton County, near McLeanesboro. Here he spent the remainder of his earlier years during which time he received his educational preparation in the common schools. On reaching his majority he entered the teaching profession, where he spent three years.

On the first day of March, 1866, he was united in marriage to Miss Matilda Carr. Five children came to bless their home, two of whom have entered the life beyond.



Brother Bennett was converted at the age of 18, and joined the Methodist Episcopal church at Reed schoolhouse in Hamilton County, Ill. He was licensed to exhort about the year 1869 and soon afterward was licensed to preach, serving the Church several years as a local preacher. In the year 1881 he was admitted on trial into the Southern Illinois Conference and into full connection in the year 1884.

He has served the following charges: De Soto, six months as supply; DuQuon Circuit, 1881-2; Enfield, 1883; Omaha, 1884-5, Equality, 1886-7; Elizabethtown, 1888; Bethalto, 1889; McLeanesboro circuit, 1890; Eddyville, 1891; Wayne City, 1892-3; Metropolis circuit, 1894. From 1895 to 1900 he held the superannuary relation and entered the superannuate ranks in 1901, in which relation he continued until the time of his death.

During his superannuate relation he served Thackery charge one year and at other times as his health permitted he preached and assisted in revival work.

Brother Bennett was evangelistic in spirit and as a result of his earnest labors he was permitted to see about 4,000 conversions.

For the past three years he had been afflicted with diabetes, with other complications, yet up to the end he entertained hope of recovery and expressed his desire to continue to preach the Gospel of the Kingdom. Yet withal he was ready when the time of his departure came. He sang and rejoiced during his afflictions and gave continuous testimony to his abiding faith.

When asked by a visiting friend, "How are you?" he replied: "I'm happy" When another expressed hopes of his getting better, he replied: "I may be in Heaven before I see you again."

Brother Bennett was loyal to his church and pastor, whoever he might be, and exhorted his brethren to manifest the same spirit.

While he suffered long and severely, yet the end came peacefully. He fell asleep at 11:55 o'clock a m on Thursday, October 19, 1911.

The funeral services were held in our church in Eldorado, Ill., October 21, and were conducted by the pastor, Rev C B

Whiteside. The following persons assisted in the services: Rev Robert Morris, district superintendent, Rev Kirkland, pastor of the local Baptist church, Rev R Robertson, pastor of our church, Harrisburg, Ill., Rev O B Kensey, pastor of our church, Ridgway, Ill., and W G Shower a neighbor and friend. The body was entered in the Eldorado cemetery.

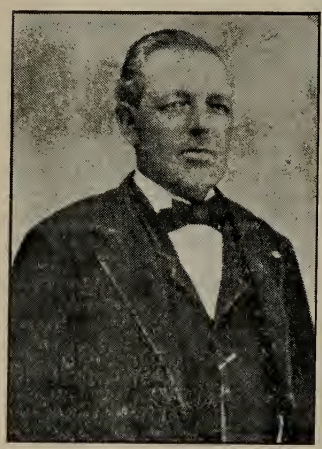
Rev William Tilroe

William Tilroe, the subject of this sketch, was born on the historic island of Walcheren, Holland, May 17, 1836, and died in Robinson, Ill., November 15, 1911. Left fatherless he came to America in early boyhood, reaching Chicago and later settling in Michigan. Hearing the call of his adopted country in 1861 he entered its military service in Company K, Twelfth Michigan infantry. Four years of exposure, marching and battle left him the heavy heritage of weakness and disease he carried to the end. His children never knew him as a well man. In 1867, at Litchfield, Ill., he entered the Southern Illinois Conference, remaining effective until superannuation in 1895, a period of twenty-eight years.



His charges in order were as follows: Reynoldburg in 1867; Fairfield, 1868-69; Grayville, 1870-72; Carmi, 1873-74; Albion, 1875-77; Sumner, 1878-79; Mt Erie, 1880; Newburg, 1881; Calhoun, 1882-83; Newton Circuit, 1884; Oblong, 1885-87; Piasa, 1888; Bone Gap, 1889-90; Hutsonville, 1891-92; Flat Rock, 1893-94. The later years of his life were spent in Robinson, Illinois., and were days of comfort though of extreme debility. Death was an expected guest for several months and came at last as a friend in the evening time. He is survived by the aged widow, Mrs Mary A Tilroe, and six children, all grown to mature years. Those remaining are Mrs Frank Smith and Mrs James Brown, Oblong, Ill., Mrs O R Tedden, Robinson, Ill., Prof. Geo. S Tilroe, of the Cavisteo schools, New York; Prof. H M Tilroe, of Syracruse University, N Y., and Rev W E Tilroe, D D, pastor of Boyle Heights Methodist Episcopal church, Los Angeles, Cal. They rise up and call him blessed. Appropriate and comforting funeral services were held at the Robinson and Bone Gap churches, conducted by the pastors and the Grand Army post laid the body away to sleep until the morning.

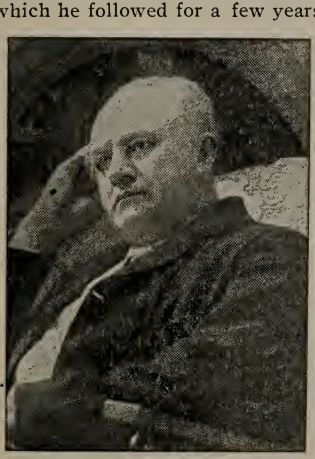
By one who knew him well perhaps three things would never be forgotten—his kindly spirit in the home, his remarkable mastery of the Holy Scriptures and his abiding regard for the country for which he fought and suffered. The large things of life were the large things of his mind. To the falling of the shadows patriotism and the fatherland were his concern. That the comrades of the blue should carry him to his rest was a wistful wish of years. His well known gift of original thinking opened for him the mighty Book of God to its very heart. The secret of immortality was to him a special facination. It is daybreak now and all is well. The homely joys of the family circle, the daily food upon his table, the roof over his head, the kindly pillow of his rest were matters he brought with him across the seas and that were brought him in days of war and wandering. That the heavens are a home and the Father's house can not be other than his eternal joy. The sleep that knows no waking is noontime and broad day with him.

Rev Henry L Steves

Rey Henry L Steves was born in Harmony, New York, June 3rd, 1858, and died at Benton, Illinois, July 31st, 1912. His early life was spent on a farm, attending the public schools, later entering Chamberlin Institute at Randolph, New York. Upon his graduation he entered the profession of teaching, which he followed for a few years.



Dr Steves was born and reared in a Christian home. His parents were devout and early led their children to accept Christ. He joined the Methodist Episcopal church at about six years of age.

Soon after attaining to manhood he felt the call to the Ministry. He at once began the preparation for his life work by entering the Western Reserve Institute of Farmington, Ohio, graduating with honor in 1882. He was received on trial by the East Ohio Conference in 1882, admitted into full connection and ordained Deacon by Bishop Warren, in 1884; ordained Elder by Bishop Mallalieu in 1886. He served Bissels and Granger in 1882; Thompson 1883-84; transferred to North Ohio Conference, appointed to Vermillion 1885-87; Bloomville 1888; missionary to Utah 1889-90; LaGrange, Ohio, 1891-95; Medina 1895-96; transferred to Austin Conferrence, First Church, Dallas, Texas, 1897-98; transferring to St Louis Conference, Dr Frey Memorial 1899-1900; Trinity 1900-1903; Goode Ave 1904-'05; transferring to Southern Illinois Conference was appointed to Litchfield 1905-'07; Benton 1908.

His health began to fail while pastor at Litchfield, suffering a slight stroke of paralysis. Partially recovering from this attack he was appointed to Benton charge. He began the work with his old time enthusiasm but before the year closed was compelled to give up the work and was granted a superannuated relation in 1909.

Dr Steves was a strong and scholarly preacher. His great knowledge of the Bible enabled him to present its truths in a logical and convincing way. His broad mind and loveable character gave him a strong grip upon men that made his ministry eminently successful, hundreds were converted and added to the church. He was a faithful pastor looking after every interest of the Kingdom.

He built eight churches and a number of parsonages which stand as monuments of his executive ability. Possessing a large and commanding physique, a scholarly mind, a magnetic personality, a great loving heart, he moved among men as a Prince of men.

For more than three years he was confined to his room, suffering great bodily pain. He bore it all with Christian fortitude and patience. With an unshaken faith in Christ he waited the day of His Crowning.

He was united in marriage to Miss Minnie Reeder, at Loudenville, Ohio, July 13th, 1884. To this union were born four children, Grace having preceeded her father to the better Land. The companion, one son, Noble Reeder, two daughters, Miss Hattie Marie, and Mrs Ruth Arnold, of Deer Lodge, Mont., one brother and two sisters mourn his departure.

Memorial services were held in the First M E Church at Benton, Friday, August 2nd, conducted by his Pastor, Rev E T Carroll, assisted by Rev J A Taylor, District Superintendent; Scripture was read by Rev J S Hall of Tamaroa, prayer by Rev Harry Smoot of Pinckneyville, short addresses by Revs G E McCammon and W R Bradley of Mt Vernon. The body accompanied by the family, was conveyed to LaGrange, Ohio, where on Saturday, August 3rd, final services were held in charge of Rev Dr Chas Gallimore, District Superintendent, of Cleveland District, North Ohio Conference, assisted by Revs Huddleson and Whitmore, and Prof F D Ward, former associates of Dr Steves. Interment in LaGrange Cemetry.

TO OUR PATRONS

The Secretaries are greatly aided in meeting the expenses of the publication of the Minutes by the Advertisers, and we assure you that you confer a favor on us by giving us your liberal support. THIS OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE SOUTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal Church circulates among thousands of Ministers, Church Officers and best families in Illinois and almost every city and village within our boundary. It is used as a reference all through the year. So an advertisement, well displayed, is continually seen. Our readers will advance their own interests by considering the advantages presented by our advertisers, for we only put in those we can recommend.

Any one desiring space in our Journal for 1913 may address
